Dear Nick:

I want to thank you for doing such a great job number one on converting my old tube and wire to breaker boxes in my house. It's such a convenience knowing I can flip a switch instead of having to search for a blown out fuse. Secondly, the basement clean-up done by John and your crew was amazing. I love everything about my basement even though it is just an unfinished basement. The added lighting, switches and receptacles makes such a big difference, but most of all knowing that the house is safely wired makes me feel much better.

Nick, you took the time to explain in detail everything you were going to do and why you were doing it and mostly the safety concerns. John called me every day with updates. John and your crew were neat, professional and courteous at all times. I trusted them in my house explicitly while I was at work. They always cleaned up after themselves. I would recommend you and your company to anyone who needs any electrical work done.

It was a pleasure working with you and to you my friend, a job well done.

Kind Regards,
